THE REAL PURPOSE OF THE FORCE BILL.

Now that it is admitted that the Republicans are determined to pass the Force bill, the question arises: Why On the day after the election, the CHRON ICLE pointed out the dilemm ; which confronted the Republican party. On the one hand they saw that the Force bill had been repudiated throughout the whole country, and that it was dangerons to further irritate the people by the kind of legislation against which they had protested. On the other hand, could they hope to control the government without help from the South? Many of the Northern States are lost. If the Republicans, we argued, believe that Illinois, New York, Indiana and other States are lost beyond remedy they will pass the Force bill; if they believe that it is a temporary repulse, they will not feel it necessary to pass the Force bill. The action of the Senate shows that the Republicans regard their losses in the North as either It lacks the merit of monplace, clear and either rhetoric or plain presentation of permanent or almost so, and they are South. If so, their plans will fail. The Force bill is loaded, and those who fire it will have cause to say:

"Some guns there are that so contrive it, To miss their game whate'er they aim at, And whether charged for duck or plover, Fly back and kick their owner over,"

But it is seriously argued by the able and astute National Democrat that the Republicans do net desire to pass the Force bill in order to gain strength in the South, or secure to the negroes in the far South the "fair ballot" they prate about so loudly. The Republican leaders know perfectly well, says the Democrat, that if such a law could be passed it could not be enforced. The Democrat's position is striking, and is worthy of consideration. Its position is:

bitterness and and to fool the negro terest of the party voters of the Northern States into the belief that ultimately in some States of the Union-South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana—the spectacle might be again presented of negroes ruling white men. To keep the negro vote solid for the Republican party in the Northern States is the real problem of Lodge, Reed, McKinley & Co. Without the negro vote these leaders know that they could never again carry Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, or Illinois, Even such States as Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Michigan and Kansas would without the negro vote polled solidly every year for the Republicans, be set down as doubtful in the political table. The census figures of 1890 are not just yet accessible in regard to race and sex, but adding 10 per cent. to the figures of the census of 1880, on account of natural increase, we have the ple. following table showing the number of negro voters in the Northern States named:

States.	voting age.
Connecticut	3,894
Illinois	15,054
Indiana
Kansas
Massachusetts
Michigan
New Jersey
New York	22,064
Ohio	23,876
Pennsylvania	26,281
Total in 10 Northern State	es138,844

Negro males,

for the Republican party that the Force bill has been framed, and it is to fool them into the belief that by its passage and enforcement, the negro can rule somewhere in the world, that the Reed rules will be tried upon the Senate at the coming session of the Senate in order to pass it.

The Republican party has ruled the country ever since the war because it controlled the negro vote. It means to continue to rule by that vote even if civil war should result from the enactment of the Lodge bill. It is the duty of the Democratic Senators to defeat the passage of that bill by every means allowed to the patriot when a nation's life is at stake. The negroes, North and South, should be taught that this is always to be a country ruled by white

HOW TO DEFEAT THE OBJECTS OF THE FORCE BILL.

If the Force bill passes it ought not to take the people of the Southern States but a few weeks to change the time of the election of all State and county officers from November to August, and give to the Legislature in each State the power to elect the Presidential Electors. Electors are State officers, and Congress cannot regulate the method of their election. This is lawful, and will be necessary as a means of self-protection. The objects of the Force bill must be defeated at any honorable cost.

Mr. Blaine has not yet telegraphed to Mr. PARNELL that "trusts" (sacred relations that exist between all honorable men) are private matters with which the public has nothing to do."

Congressman Cares, of Alabama, one of the ablest men in Congress, is at work on a bill which provides that the money to be used in paying pensions shall be derived from a tax levied upon all incomes which exceed $10,000. He has not yet perfected the details of his bill which, if passed, would have two good

1. It would compel the very rich to contribute their just share to the burdens of government. Many of them grew rich out of the jobs and trades incident to the war, and because their incomes are largely derived from nontaxable bonds they escape taxation. An income of tax would make them pay in proportion to their wealth-the only just system of taxation.

2. It would cause a more careful examination into the transactions of the pension bureau and the wealthy thinkers of the country would soon expose the schemes which are now allowed to be carried to completion through the greed of pension agents who are not exposed by timid Congressmen.

In the last session of the House, Hon. ALFRED ROWLAND, of North Carolina, introduced a bill to put a tax on incomes. He was on the right line. Year by year men of large fortune have found new ways of escaping taxation, and if legislators compel them them to pay their share of the burdens, there will have to be new methods adopted. The income tax is the best yet presented.

TWO OF A KIND.

Mr. PARNELL holds to the belief that his immorality in the O'SHEA scandal was a personal matter with which the public has nothing to do. And BEN BUTLER is out in an interview in which he says the Irish leader is entirely right. "If I were in Mr. PARNELL's place," says the erratic Ben, "I would rise in Parliament and say: 'Let him that is without sin among you cast the first stone."

They are two of a kind-each loves his own agrandizement and power more than principle or the good of the peo-

Black Goods Department.

This season allows to the wearer of Black Goods more different textures than any previous year, and very well so, because those who wear black like to have a variety to buy from, as well as those who wear colors. The attractions of our Black Goods Department are not confined to extreme novelties, notably shaggy, loug-haired styles, but embrace all the new weaves in plainer materials, as well as the most staple fabrics. The rougher goods, which have been most popular so far this season, are the

CAMEL'S HAIR VIGOGNES, CAMEL'S HAIR STRIPES, CAMELL'S HAIR PLAIDS,

JSE= koyal Germeteur

It is one of the best remedies ever offered. People throughout this and many other States are calling for and using Germeteur. Thousands testify to the merits of and the good it has done those who have used it. It will prevent and cure diseases. It strengthens and builds up the system in the old as well as in the young. What some who have used Germeteur says of it: Mrs. Jno. H. Ball says a long and painful illness in the spring le't her nervous system completely prostrated; her digestion out of order. The use of three bottles of Royal Germeteur regulated digestion, gave a splendid appetite and gained ten pounds in flesh.

Mrs. W. F. King: "I had been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Indigestion. I took Royal Germeteur and it relieved me in a short while." Rev. J. J. Hall: "I have used Royal Germeteur in my family and believe it to be a valuable medicine."

Mrs. N. H. Blackwood, Chapel Hill, N. C.: "I have been troubled with Rheumatism and Dyspepsia nearly thirty years; have tried many remedies, with only temporary relief. I began using Germeteur; have used five bottles, and I now feel that I am permanently cured; haven't suffered from either trouble since I began using Germeteur."

R. Judson Buffaloe: "I have been using Royal Germeteur in my family with great satisfaction. Our babe, while teething, was ill often; had high fevers and looked as if it would have spasms. We began giving it Germeteur, and have had no trouble since. My wife also suffered from a nervous trouble and has experienced very great rellef from the Germeteur she took." Every family should have a bottle of Royal Germeteur in their homes. Try it.
